

Working with LGBTQIA+ children and young people.

This fact sheet details practice resources that can provide practitioners and service providers guidance on enhancing safety and inclusivity within service delivery for LGBTQIA+ children, young people and their families. The information has been collated as part of the Diversity in Practice webinar series, which is supported by the Centre, Department of Families, Fairness, and Housing, Family Safety Australia under the MARAM Capacity Building Project.

| | | |
|--|---|---|
|  | <h2>Research and Reports</h2> | |
| Research that looks at the mental health experiences and mental health service experiences for Australian trans and gender diverse young people and their parents/caregivers. | Research about understanding the health and well-being of Australian LGBTQIA+ young people, and LGBTQIA+ young people's experiences of services. | Research that outlines the ongoing challenges faced by Australian trans and gender diverse young people when accessing healthcare. |
|  | <h2>Practice Guides</h2> | |
| Working with LGBTQIA+ young people at risk of suicide. | Working with homeless LGBTQIA+ young people. | Making services intersex friendly |
| Working with autistic LGBTQIA+ young people. | Supporting trans and gender diverse children and their families. | Creating a welcome and safe space for trans and gender diverse children and young people: A checklist for allied health services. |
| Supporting trans and gender diverse children and their families with gender affirmation. A guide for GP's and pediatricians. | A tip sheet on strategies for maintaining well-being whilst working with LGBTQIA+ young people. | |